About us

DeskTime was founded back in 2011 under the Draugiem Group umbrella, placing us at the epicenter of a buzzing hub of IT magic in Latvia.

Now, DeskTime works with clients from over 100 countries, offering easy automatic productivity tracking to freelancers and bigwig enterprises alike.

Why automatic time tracking?

Teams often struggle with time management, leading to decreased productivity and missed deadlines.

CASE STUDY

Customer profile

Location: Bangladesh

Number of employees: 45

Industry: IT software development

Client base: USA, India and UK

Main pain points

1. Struggling to meet deadlines, as projects took twice as long to complete as originally estimated.
2. Employees expressing a desire to work remotely but no idea how to facilitate this.
3. Difficulty accurately estimating the time and cost required for each project.
4. Inability to schedule shifts for the support team.

Pain point

Projects took twice as long to complete

✓ How DeskTime helped to resolve it:

The productivity analysis provided by DeskTime allowed the company to differentiate whether the employee struggled with a particular project or lacked motivation overall.

The company could then provide the needed guidance and support when the reason is clear.

Pain point

Desire to work remotely

✓ How DeskTime helped to resolve it:

98% of employees are satisfied with the new work time tracking system, leading to increased productivity.

They feel more motivated and appreciate the improved transparency with managers.

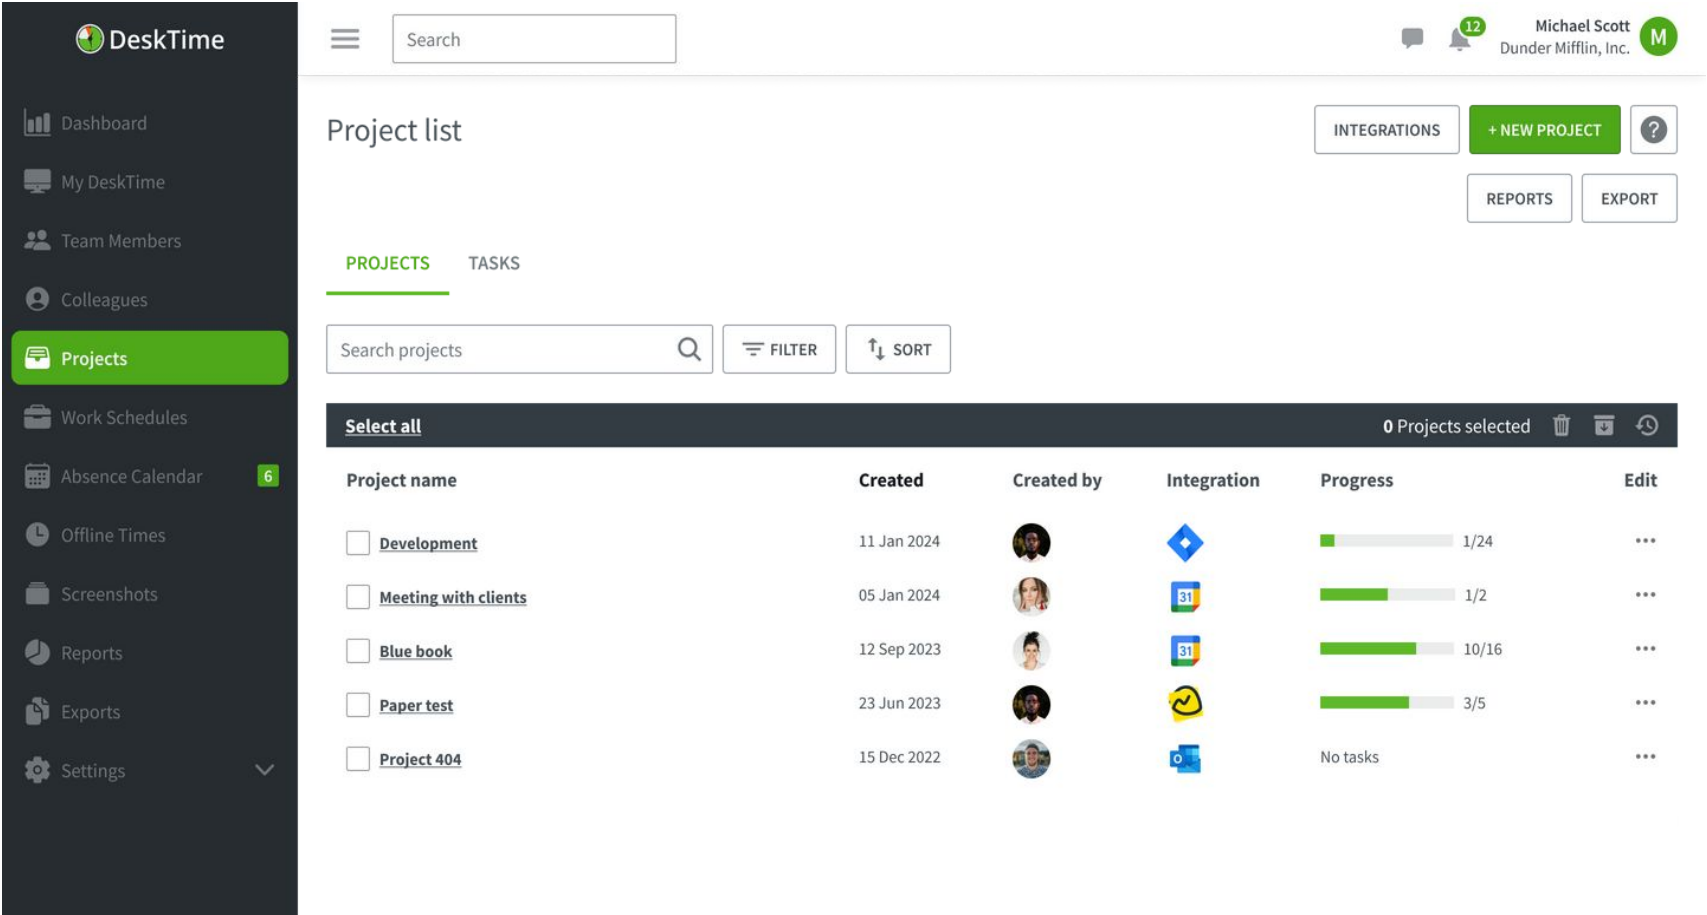

Pain point

Difficulty estimating the time and costs

✓ How DeskTime helped to resolve it:

They used Trello to plan their daily tasks, and since DeskTime is seamlessly integrated with it, tracking project time and invoicing was a breeze.

The screenshot displays the DeskTime web application interface. On the left is a dark sidebar with navigation options: Dashboard, My DeskTime, Team Members, Colleagues, Projects (highlighted in green), Work Schedules, Absence Calendar (with a '6' badge), Offline Times, Screenshots, Reports, Exports, and Settings. The main content area is titled 'Project list' and includes a search bar, 'INTEGRATIONS', '+ NEW PROJECT', 'REPORTS', and 'EXPORT' buttons. Below this are tabs for 'PROJECTS' and 'TASKS'. A search bar for projects and 'FILTER' and 'SORT' buttons are also present. A table lists projects with columns for Project name, Created, Created by, Integration, Progress, and Edit. The table shows five projects: Development, Meeting with clients, Blue book, Paper test, and Project 404, each with a progress bar and a 'No tasks' status.

Pain point

Inability to schedule shifts

✓ How DeskTime helped to resolve it:

DeskTime tracked all work time data and schedules, making shift management smooth for a growing company.

ROI and financial results

"Although we spend nearly $300 per month on the time tracking software, it saves us around $2,000 monthly.

It saves money, and at the same time, it increases revenue. So it's beneficial to us in two crucial ways."

The company's revenue has increased by nearly 40% since the adoption of DeskTime.
